Quest. 10. Who have been expelled from the connection this year?

None.

Quest. 11. Who have withdrawn from the connection this year?

None.

Quest. 12. Were all the preachers' characters examined before the Conferences?

This was strictly attended to, by calling over their names before their respective Conferences.

Quest. 13. Who have died this year?

1. William Patridge,—who was born in Sussex county, in the year 1754. He was brought up to industry, and from his childhood was strictly moral. About the 21st year of his age he embraced religion. His name appears on the Minutes of 1780, as a travelling preacher, and so continued for about nine years. He then retired, and continued a local preacher about twenty-five years, during which time his wife, a pious woman, died, and left two children. He continued to keep house with them, until they were grown and provided for. He had frequently expressed a desire to labour and to die in the travelling connection;—an opportunity now offered: he embraced it, and was stationed in 1814 on Keewee circuit; in 1815 and 1816 on Alcovi; and in 1817 in Sparta, where he died on the 17th of May. As a citizen, he respected the rights of man with a nicety seldom equalled, never surpassed. Though surrounded by those who held slaves, he would have none. As the head of a family, it may be said, industry, piety, peace, and harmony, were the motto of his house. As a Christian, numbers have professed sanctification, but he lived it. One intimately acquainted with him, writes thus:—"I have lived a near neighbour to brother Patridge for upward of twenty years, and can with satisfaction say, that he was the greatest example of piety I have ever been acquainted with." As a minister of the gospel, he knew the strength of his abilities, and never appeared to soar above them. In preaching, he was experimental, practical, and plain; and none were at a loss to understand him. He drew his divinity out of the Bible, and read authors but little: but the Scripture was his constant study, and he was profitable to many. He deeply lamented the growing departure, among us, from primitive Christian simplicity, and earnestly warned the societies among whom he laboured against it. His labours and life he wished to close together. His last sermon was on these words: "Walk in wisdom toward them that are without." That evening he was taken ill, (14th May,) his illness increased;—physicians were procured, but in vain. His colleague asked him whether he was ready for the final summons. He said, "Yes; for me to die is gain." His speech left him, and on Saturday night after he was taken, he breathed his last. Thus he lived—thus he died. "The memory of the just is blessed."

2. Anthony Senter,—who was born in Lincoln county, North Carolina, January 28, 1785: died at Georgetown, South Carolina, December 23, 1817.

Until eighteen years old he lived with his parents, whose circumstances in life necessarily occupied that time in manual labour which it is to be regretted they were not able to improve in the education of such a son.

At eighteen years old he was apprenticed in the blacksmith's business; and as with his parents he had been remarked for industry and filial duty, so with his master: indefatigable in his business, sober and moral in his general conduct, he merited and had the praise of those who knew him.

In our happy country such a young man must succeed—so did Anthony Senter. His trade acquired, and he set up in business: he soon surmounted the early difficulties of life, and saw his way direct to ease and affluence. But what was a gain to him, he gladly counted loss for Christ.

We have no information of his early convictions, nor can we say any thing of his religious feelings until after his establishment in life. The pious walk and godly conversation of one of his neighbours first led him to examine, with restless concern, into the nature of vital religion, and he became gradually convinced that he yet lacked that "one needful thing."

It was some time in the year 1806, at a meeting in the Enoree circuit, that it pleased the Lord to give him an overwhelming conviction of sin. He went away from that meeting weeping and praying. On his way home (so overwhelmed was he with the sense of his lost state) he either alighted or fell from his horse, and was found late in the evening, lying by the road-side in the utmost agony, pleading with God for mercy. From this time he gave himself wholly to the great concerns of salvation; nor was it long before he found the "pearl of great price"—the forgiveness of sins. He joined the church, became a class-leader, and soon after entered upon the all-important work of the ministry.

His first appointment was to the Great Pee Dee circuit, A. D. 1809; in 1810, Bladen circuit; in 1811, Little Pee Dee circuit; 1812, Buncombe circuit; 1813, Sparta circuit; in 1814, he was stationed in Georgetown; 1815, stationed in Charleston; 1816 and 1817, presiding elder of the Broad River district.

Of our dear brother Senter we may confidently say, that as a man he deserved the respect of all; as a Christian, he was without offence; and as a minister, he was blameless.

A strong mind, and a benevolent heart; a single eye, and a steady purpose to glorify God; an unwavering faith, fervent love, and burning zeal—these were the exalted attributes of this good man.

While able to labour in the word and doctrine, he was abundant and indefatigable in the work; and even when so impaired by the fatal consumption as scarcely to be able to preach at all, still did he travel from circuit to circuit; and, as though unwilling that any thing but death should separate him from his work, when his strength was so exhausted as to render him unable to preach, he would at least assemble the official members of his charge, and instruct them in their duty, and encourage them to their work.

At last even this was denied him. As the veteran soldier retiring from the field, faint and exhausted by wounds and fatigue, yet only now retiring because he can do no more, so with our beloved brother: unable even for the smallest labour, and almost dead, he reluctantly gave up the toil, and retired to his house in Georgetown, whence, after a few weeks, he was taken to the "house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

The writer of these remarks lived his nearest neighbour, and was daily, intimately, and most affectionately conversant with him until death separated them. In his beloved brother he witnessed the faith of the gospel unshaken in the wreck of nature. Reduced to a living skeleton, feeble as a child, and just falling into the grave, his heart could not be separated from the work of God; he still charged himself with its interests, and felt its cares. Indeed, with death before him, and the awful glories of the invisible world just ready to be unfolded, like Jacob, gathering up his feet, composed, collected, and without dismay or dread, he fell asleep.

3. Henry Padgett,—a native of Charles county, Maryland. He was born December, 1791, and was converted to God about the eighteenth year of his age, and soon felt a deep solicitude for the salvation of souls. He was licensed to exhort in March, 1813; and being fully persuaded that he was called of God to the work of the ministry, he entered the travelling connection in 1814, and was appointed to Redstone circuit; in 1815, to Rockingham. In 1816 he was received into full connection, and appointed to Lancaster circuit, where, with his worthy colleague, he had the pleasure of seeing three or four hundred souls brought to God. In 1817 he was reappointed to the same circuit, and again received with the warmest cordiality, and had the happiness of seeing the prosperity of the work of God.

On the second day of September he reached the house of the Rev. William Forrester, in Richmond county, where he had an appointment the following day. He complained of being somewhat unwell; but when the hour came he proceeded to meet the congregation, and preached his last sermon, from the 21st verse of the Epistle of Jude, "Keep yourselves in the love of God." At night he prayed with the family, as usual, and retired to bed. On the morning following he found his disorder increasing; a physician being sent for, on his arrival he pronounced it to be a bilious fever.

On seeing the family weeping by his bed-side, when his disease had become serious, he begged them not to weep for him, but rather rejoice that he was going to heaven. On a friend's calling to see him, he asked him to pray with him, and to read the last chapter in the Revelation, observing that he wished to hear the holy city talked of. While he was reading, he shouted, Glory, glory! and exclaimed, "I feel no condemnation, all is peace; give my love to the brethren, and to all who know me, and tell them to meet me in heaven." He asked what day of the month it was: on being told the eighth, he then rejoiced, and said, "On the tenth day of September I shall be singing in heaven. By faith, I see Elijah's chariot ready to convey my soul to glory. Glorious period! welcome messenger! a few more lingering hours in the flesh, and I shall be in yonder paradisiacal state." Soon after was witnessed a deeply interesting scene by all present: he exclaimed, in the fulness of his impassioned solicitude for the spiritual and eternal interest of those committed to his pastoral care, "O my poor circuit! who shall take care of my poor circuit!" Some time after, when he was told that he was recovering, he replied with a smile, "I would rather you had said I was dying, for I had rather die than live." Every breath was prayer and praise.

On Wednesday morning, being the day on which he died, he was heard shouting the praises of God while alone in his room: and upon brother F.'s entering the room, he looked steadfastly on him, and said, "Brother F., my work is done; I am dying happy and resigned." In the evening he asked who were in the room: it was told him, no person but the family. "Oh, yes!" said he, "who are these in white! they are waiting to receive my spirit; I shall soon be gone." A little after, he said, "O death! welcome death! farewell my brother; I bid you all farewell. I am not dead, but living, O yes! living in heaven." A few moments after he fell asleep in the arms of Jesus, at half past five o'clock, on the evening of the very day which he had before said he should be employed in singing the praises of God in heaven.

Henry Padgett was a good minister of Jesus Christ; his preaching was evangelical, and his life was holy. Through his instrumentality many were brought to the knowledge of the truth. A goodly number of the seals of his ministry are, we trust, now with him in heaven. Some had gone before, others have followed after.

It was observed by brother F., that during the period of nearly eighteen months preceding his death he never had heard him speak an improper word, or seen him do an improper action. He had just views of Christian discipline; he enforced strictly, but mildly, that of the church of which he was a minister.

Toward the conclusion of the period of his ministerial labours he appeared to preach as if each sermon were to be his last. The announcement of the death of our beloved Padgett produced a general mourning throughout the circuit. Indeed their Christian fellowship and warm affection had been reciprocal. But their loss is his infinite gain. He rests from his labours, and his works shall follow him.

4. Hezekiah Harryman.—He was a native of Baltimore county, Md. His parents were among the first fruits unto God of the Methodist ministry in that part of the country. They taught him in early life the fear of the Lord; of whose instructions he speaks thus: "I have been thankful to God for the many useful lessons which they taught me when but a child." He soon became a subject of the awakening grace of God; which convictions, under a variety of circumstances, continued to increase; and after a painful struggle on the day of his conversion, sustained until the hour of midnight, the Lord manifested himself to his soul, and gave him an evidence of the pardon of his sins, on the first day of August, 1790, and about the twentieth year of his age; after which he soon began to warn sinners to flee from the wrath which is to come. He entered the travelling connection at a Conference held at Baltimore city, Oct., 1795, and was appointed to Bath circuit; in 1796, to Berkley; in 1797, was received into full connection, and appointed to Pittsburg circuit; in 1798, to Stafford; in 1799, again to Stafford; in 1800, to Lancaster, and also 1801, from which he was removed to Danville, Ky.; in 1802, Salt River and Shelby; in 1803 he received an appointment at the Kentucky Conference to Natchez, which he reached in November, and continued to labour there, and in its vicinity, until March, 1805; at which time he embarked for Philadelphia, extremely debilitated; and on his arrival was appointed to Harford circuit, in Maryland; on which circuit he married. In 1806 he was appointed to Federal (now Severn) circuit; in 1807 to Baltimore circuit, where he was suddenly seized with a paralytic stroke, under the following circumstances:—

When on his way from a friend's house to one of his appointments, he met a boy, of whom he attempted to ask the way to his appointment, and found his tongue refused obedience to his volitions, whereby he was rendered incapable of speech. The progress of the disease was farther evinced by his glove falling from his hand, contrary to his wishes, into a stream of water, while his horse was drinking; to prevent the final loss of which he dismounted, with a view to stop its progress down the stream; to effect which he attempted to leap across a small rivulet, and fell into it; whose banks concealed him from the observation of travellers on the road; and which, but for the presence of his horse exciting curiosity, would probably have been the spot of his dissolution; from which attack he never fully recovered. This, with a combination of other diseases, terminated in his dissolution. Through the whole period of his last illness he testified that he had no fear of death.

His wife and family lay with considerable weight on his mind; but he was soon enabled to resign them into the hands of his heavenly Father. A few days previous to his dissolution, when visited by a friend, he found his mind serene and tranquil; and a few moments before his death he gave to a relative the most satisfactory evidence of his preparation for the important change, and bid the world a final adieu.

Hezekiah Harryman was sound in the faith; a good and useful minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ. He has left behind him an affectionate companion and five small children to lament their loss.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

5. Gad Smith.—He was born in Goshen, Litchfield county, state of Connecticut, A. D. 1788. He experienced religion in his nineteenth year, and joined the church in 1807; was approved of as an exhorter, 1810; in September, 1811, was licensed as a local preacher on Litchfield circuit. He was received into the itinerancy on trial at the Albany Conference, June, 1812, and appointed to Middletown circuit, where he laboured with general acceptance and usefulness (God giving him souls as seals to his ministry) six months, and was then removed to Litchfield circuit. In 1813 he was appointed back to Litchfield circuit, but was soon removed to New-Haven. In 1814 he was stationed again at Hew-Haven, where he laboured with success, having favour both with God and man. And though he be dead, he will long live in the grateful remembrance of that people.

In 1815 he was stationed in Hotchkiss-town, a small village near New-Haven. He laboured here and in the adjoining towns with increasing zeal and fervour. In September he attended a camp meeting, and such was his engagedness, he laboured beyond his bodily strength. The word of God appeared at this time to be like fire shut up in his bones, and he called sinners to repentance with an authority and power that greatly surprised his friends, and overawed the congregation.

Soon after this he took a violent cold, that settled on his lungs, and deprived him of his voice. He, however, so far recovered as to be able to visit some of his friends, though he was unable to speak a loud word. His complaint terminated in a scrofulous swelling on each side of his neck, which was supposed to be the proximate cause of his death, on the 24th of September, 1817.

Our dear brother Smith was a man of deep piety, and good natural and acquired abilities, sound and acceptable preaching talents. He was diligent and successful in all places where he was stationed. In visiting from house to house, and exhorting and praying with the people, he was equalled by few. In this work he delighted, and in this work he did prevail.

He was gentle and conciliating in his manners, very sincere and faithful in his friendships. Though he was naturally of a timid make, yet ardent zeal made him bold in the cause of his God.

His warm affection for the cause of Christ, and the friends of Jesus, with his deep concern for sinners, were peculiarly manifest in all his public exercises. Nor did his faith weaken, or his zeal grow cold; but through the mighty grace of God, which wrought within him, he pushed forward, until feeble nature sunk beneath the weight. He was patient, resigned, and triumphant in death, and is gone, we believe, to receive a crown of blessedness. He has left a wife and two small children to mourn their heavy loss.
